

DESCRIPTION

Extendable anti-theft backpack, made of PU Leather. This backpack not only offers style and durability, but also extra security for your belongings. With a clever design, the main compartment is located at the back of the backpack, making it difficult for would-be thieves to access. Inside, you'll find a large main compartment and a padded pocket for a 14" laptop. It also has a padded outer front pocket and side pockets to keep your items organized and within reach. For your comfort, the handles and back of the backpack are padded, providing ergonomic support. In addition, it includes a trolley strap, so you can attach it to your hand luggage when you travel. Combine safety, functionality and style with our extendable anti-theft backpack made of PU Leather. Protect your belongings as you move in comfort and style.
