

DESCRIPTION

Backpack made of RPET 600D recycled polyester, which combines a vigore design with PU Leather details. This backpack is not only stylish, but also environmentally friendly. Inside, you'll find a large main compartment and a padded pocket designed to protect your 15" laptop. In addition, it has a padded outer pocket to store your personal belongings safely. For all-day comfort, the handles and back of the backpack are padded, offering an ergonomic fit and reducing pressure on your shoulders. In addition, it includes a practical trolley strap, which will allow you to attach it to your hand luggage when you travel. Combine style, functionality and sustainability with our RPET 600D recycled polyester backpack with a vigore design and PU Leather details. Carry your belongings safely and with environmental awareness.
